Opening Hymn: #558 "When the Storms of Life are Raging"

Invocation: (Adapted in part from the song "Praise You in the Storm" by Casting Crowns)

Almighty, All-powerful, Good and Faithful God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. When the storms of life threaten, where does our help come from? Our help comes from the Lord, the maker of heaven and earth. When trials and trouble come, and the thunder rolls, if we listen, we can hear Your whisper through the rain, "I am with you!" So, we will lift our hands. And we will praise you in the storm. For You are Who You are - loving, caring, faithful, trustworthy and good - no matter where we are. Amen!

Children's Story: Pat Tritt
(Immediately following the story, the children are invited to attend Children's Church)

The Word of God: Mark 4:35-41

Message: "Storm Warning"

Video: "In the Eye of the Storm"

Closing Song: #336 "When Peace Like a River" Verse 1

Benediction: In good times and in bad. Whether at peace or in the most turbulent of storms. May you walk as closely with Jesus as he wants to walk with you. Yea, though you walk even through the valley of death, may you fear no evil, for He is with you. Trust - and find your comfort, hope, rescue and salvation - in Him. Go forth in the peace of his faithful presence and steadfast love. Amen.
